Prince Street Gallery is pleased to present How The Light Gets In: New Paintings and Prints by Elizabeth Higgins. A selection of abstracted landscape and figure paintings and prints completed between 2018-2022 will be on display. Higgins' work explores light and how light makes its way into the landscape and interior spaces.

The exhibition, Higgins' fifth solo show with the gallery, will feature more than 20 works that capture Higgins' vibrant use of color and emotive gesture. How The Light Gets In will be on view through December 24 at Prince Street Gallery, Suite 504 at 547 West 27th Street.

The exhibition is accompanied by an illustrated catalog with an essay by artist and art critic John Goodrich and will be celebrated with an opening reception on December 1, from 5-8 pm.
